Environmental Delegation to China 2016: Call for Applications

Join the Environmental Delegation to China 2016, supported by the New Zealand China Friendship Society and Beijing Youxie.

About the Tour

Objectives: The objectives of this tour are for New Zealand environmental professionals to:

- Build relationships with their Chinese counterparts and better understand Chinese culture and worldviews.
- Learn about China's natural environment and the pressures it faces.
- Exchange knowledge about environmental challenges and successes in terms of policy, management, innovation, community action.
- Identify further opportunities for ongoing relationships, knowledge exchange, consulting, technology, trade etc.
- Share the knowledge and experience gained on return to NZ.

Dates: October 8th to 24th 2016 (tentative)

Itinerary: Beijing (5 days), Sichuan Province (5 days), Yunnan Province (4 days).

We have prepared a draft itinerary that is open to discussion and change, as we wish to cater the tour to the interests of the selected delegates. However, the tour will include:

- Visiting significant cultural sites (e.g. Great Wall, Forbidden City) and natural areas (e.g. Jiuzhai Valley National Park).
- Discussions with government departments, businesses, NGOs, university departments.
- Touring innovative or successful projects e.g. Baoding High-Tech Industry Development Zone, Daping Mountain eco-village, Dujiangyan irrigation system, Giant Panda research base, 'eco-women' project sites.
- Visiting villages and rural areas as well as Beijing and Kunming cities.
- Opportunities to take part in cultural activities (e.g. tea ceremony, kung fu lesson, tai chi).

Cost: Estimated maximum contribution of $1500 per person (we are seeking additional funding so this cost may reduce between now and October)

Includes:

- Airfares from NZ to China return, economy class
- All internal travel
- Twin share 3* hotel accommodation
- Three meals per day
- Entry fees for sites and attractions
- Gifts and tips

Excludes:

- Single entry visa (required)
- Travel insurance (required)
- Personal expenses (e.g. snacks, alcohol, laundry, internet, spending money)

Tour size: Six people. Four spaces are available.

Important notes:

- This is not a fully guided tour (i.e. you will not be traveling with a guide from NZ), but there will be professional guides on occasion, and support/guidance from Beijing Youxie and the NZCFS.
- You will need to be comfortable traveling in a foreign country, taking responsibility for yourself, and working as part of a group to make the trip successful and enjoyable.
- This is not a luxury tour – you should expect good quality 3* hotels, good food, comfortable taxis/busses/shuttles, economy flights.
- You will need to share a room with one other and we will do our best to accommodate preferences.

Eligibility criteria

- Be a NZ Citizen
- Hold a Bachelor's degree
- Have at least two year's experience working in an environment-related field (e.g. Mātauranga Māori, urban planning, environmental science, conservation, climate change, sustainable transport, sustainable agriculture, ecotourism).
- Have a relaxed and positive 'go with the flow' attitude.
- Be willing to make the following commitments:
  - Prior to the trip:
    - learn your mihi and a group waiata
    - learn basic Chinese greetings and etiquette
    - work with other delegates on trip planning and preparation
    - take part in a carbon-offsetting activity
