

Lanzhou City University: Full-time English Teacher

Lanzhou City University (LCU) is a full-time undergraduate institution of Gansu Province approved by the Ministry of Education in February 2006. Situated in Lanzhou, a key city along the Silk Road and the city of the Yellow River, the richly endowed location allows easy access to public transportation. LCU was created through the merger of Lanzhou Normal College, founded in June 1958, with Bailie Oil School, established by Mr Rewi Alley in May 1942. In August 2007, LCU further merged with Gansu Kindergarten Teachers' School with the approval of the People's Government of Gansu Province.

Adhering to the motto “Hands and Mind Together, Create and Analyze” proposed by Mr Rewi Alley, the university devotes itself to the cultivation of applied talents. Currently, there are 16 colleges and 36 institutions, such as Gansu Urban Development Research Institute, Gansu Cultural Translation and Interpreting Center, Rewi Alley Research Center and Lanzhou Smart City Research Institute, etc. There are currently 52 bachelor’s degree programs at LCU, including such fields as engineering, natural sciences, economics, education, literature, law, history and art, amounting to a total of seven disciplines. The disciplines involving teacher training, urban services and engineering technology have formed themselves into three clusters of majors at LCU.

American expert instructing Arts students

With the vision of pursuing open and cooperative education, our university has capitalized on Rewi Alley’s international influence, using the Belt and Road Initiative as an opportunity to strengthen exchanges with universities and institutions in countries and regions along the Silk Road and promote cooperation on campus, inter-university cooperation, and cooperation between universities and enterprises. It has successively built 237 internship and training bases with the government, universities, research institutes, enterprises and public institutions. International exchanges will be enhanced by establishing educational and cultural exchanges with the universities and institutions in New Zealand, the United States, Russia, and France as well as with those in Taiwan, China.
